

FAVA President Isao Kurauchi visits Bangkok, Thailand

From January 26 (Fri.) to 27 (Sat.), 2024, FAVA President Isao Kurauchi visited Bangkok, Thailand.

On January 26, he visited the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific, and on January 27, he visited the National Institute of Animal Health of Thailand.

Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO)
Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific

National Institute of Animal Health

Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO)
Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific

Dr. Mary Joy Gordoncillo, FAO Project Officer and Dr. Kachen Wongsathapornchai, FAO Regional Manager attended at the FAO Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific, and from FAVA, and Dr. Achariya FAVA Bangkok Office Director attended. President Kurauchi exchanged opinions on further collaboration on One Health between FAVA and FAO.

National Institute of Animal Health

At the National Institute of Animal Health of Thailand, Dr. Lerdchai Jintapitaksakul, Director of the Institute, FAVA President Kurauchi, Dr. Achariya, FAVA Bangkok Office Director, and Professor Naoaki Misawa from Miyazaki University exchanged opinions on the institute's initiatives, and also toured the facility.