The 4th One Health International Forum in Fukuoka was held

On Saturday, February 17, 2024, the 4th One Health International Forum in Fukuoka was held at the International Conference Hall of ACROS Fukuoka in Fukuoka City.

This year's One Health International Forum was held under the theme of "Achieving Well-Being through One Health," with world-class researchers in various fields presenting what should be done and how collaboration should be achieved in order to solve issues such as common human-animal infectious diseases and drug-resistant bacteria through One Health approach. In addition to the presentations, the conference was held to discuss the realization of wellbeing that lies ahead and to disseminate this information to the world.
